Dynamic Vehicle Engagement

This intensive 4-day law enforcement training course is designed to enhance officers' operational effectiveness in vehicle-centric encounters, surveillance operations, and high-risk interdictions. The course blends classroom instruction with progressive hands-on training to develop sound tactics, decision-making, communication, and officer safety in dynamic environments involving vehicles. The final day is scenario based training evolutions, encompassing lessons learned from the previous 3 days.